Two American missionaries diagnosed with Ebola in Liberia. Missionaries flown to Emory University Hospital in Atlanta for treatment.

First imported case of Ebola in US is Thomas Eric Duncan, a Liberian citizen who traveled to Dallas, TX.

MA doctor diagnosed with Ebola in Liberia, later arrives at Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

American cameraman diagnosed with Ebola in Liberia, later flown to Omaha.

Two Dallas nurses who cared for Duncan test positive for Ebola.

Dr. Craig Spencer tests positive for Ebola in NY after returning from Guinea.

Will we see more cases in the US? Possible imported cases: 0-1 cases in November 2014. Possible secondary cases: 1 case in November 2014.

Ebola cases in the US (as of October 31, 2014):
- Total Cases: 13567
- Total Deaths: 4,951
- As of October 31, 2014:
  - DHR

Key events and Twitter activity:
- Tweets mentioning Ebola: Total: 13567, As of October 31: 4,951
- Two American missionaries diagnosed with Ebola in Liberia
- Missionaries flown to Emory University Hospital in Atlanta for treatment
- MA doctor diagnosed with Ebola in Liberia, later arrives at Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha
- First imported case of Ebola in US is Thomas Eric Duncan, a Liberian citizen who traveled to Dallas, TX
- American cameraman diagnosed with Ebola in Liberia, later flown to Omaha
- Two Dallas nurses who cared for Duncan test positive for Ebola
- Dr. Craig Spencer tests positive for Ebola in NY after returning from Guinea

Map showing the spread of cases and treatments in the US, with marked cities and states and color-coded cases and recoveries.